

Student and Faculty Honors committee met on 2/16/18 in 011 Hullihen Hall, 8-9am

Members present: Michael Chajes, Karen Brinker, Ted Davis, Barbara Settles, Lynn Snyder-Mackler, and Dana Veron, Hemant Kher

1. Discussed schedule of upcoming meetings
2. Discussed when review of nominations and selection of winners would take place.
3. Discussed how to better recognize award winners in the Library for other venues and to better promote the Alison lecture. Decided we need to partner better with the Provost office communications person and also UD's office of communications and marketing.
4. Discussed creation of a new Community Engagement Award (voted unanimously to make a request to the Provost, in combination with the Faculty Senate Executive Committee) to establish and fund this new award.
5. Discussed the need to move some award deadlines and selection to the fall.
6. Discussed whether or not "citizenship" was part of the Alison award criteria.
