

Student and Faculty Honors committee met on 3/2/18 in 302 DuPont Hall, 8-9am

Members present: Michael Chajes, Karen Brinker, Ted Davis, Barbara Settles, Dana Veron, Carrie Glenn, Paul Laux, Don Sparks, and Caitlyn Bender

1. Announced that the Provost has approved the formation of one $5,000 Community Engagement Award starting next year.
2. Discussed the online award review process (instructions were given, team assignments were reviewed, and dates for initial ratings were selected – March 13 to Michael).
3. Reviewed the schedule of upcoming meetings (March 14 and 21). We will make preliminary decisions for Teaching, TA, Advising, and Scholarship at the March 14 meeting, and finalize decisions at the March 21 meeting.
4. Alison nominations are not due until March 15, we will review these over spring break.
5. Discussed the new mid-career scholarship award relative to whether we should be giving it to Associate Professors or Professors.
