Dear Colleague,

I was just informed last night (at 9.22pm, in fact) that the Faculty Senate is now requiring a note of approval for the permanent status review of the Environmental Studies Program. According to Karren Helsel, such approvals were not needed in the past.

Your unit has already supported its involvement with the environmental studies major to date. This is simply an acknowledgement of continued support. Could you please be so kind as to simply reply to this email explicitly indicating that your unit approves continued use of courses with the permanent status for the Environmental Studies Program?

Most units, including CHEM, BISC, PLSC, ENWC (among others). only have one class as part of the Environmental Studies major and others have a couple. Only a few units have more than a few classes as part of the major. The link below is to the UD catalog if you wish to see the current program requirements:

http://academiccatalog.udel.edu/Pub_ShowCatalogPage.aspx?CATKEY=KEY_1942&ACYEAR=2013-2014

Thanks so very much. I apologize for the extra email due to the change in Faculty Senate rules. I appreciate your expeditious response.

Kind regards,
Del Levia

Hi Maria,

Here are the courses that are listed in the Environmental Studies Program.

UAPP 451 Issues in Land Use and Environmental Planning

UAPP 452 International Development Policy and Administration

UAPP 456/656

Politics and Disaster -- We will be discontinuing this course. It was owned by POSC and taught by a POSC professor who retired.

MAST 622/UAPP 426

Conservation and Renewable Energy Policy

UAPP 640

International Development Policy and Administration

Also, we crosslist with PHIL on PHIL448/UAPP448 but PHIL is the owner.

Thanks,

Nicole
