Prasad will make changes to the charge of the Coordinating Committee on Education. He has asked Steve Hastings, Chair of Undergraduate Studies, Charles Swanik, Chair of Graduate Studies, Steve Eidelman, Chair of Library Committee and Don Lehman, Chair of ICRSS to review their committee charge with their committee members and send any changes to Prasad for COCAN approval.
 - c. Request to approve a Non-Credit Certificate in Advanced Paralegal Certificate Program - <https://docs.google.com/a/udel.edu/spreadsheets/d/1Ts0I5MrgWpXN734OEYUlhewS6OmOSHLoZL9VX8bsw1A/pub?output=html>
Please scroll down to the very bottom to view this item on the spreadsheet.
Approved
- III. Other:
 - a. Discussion about 4+1 programs and how many transfer/overlap credits are policy at UD. It appears to be 9, but Steve Hastings will bring this discussion to the UGS Committee next week and report back to CCE.
 - b. Prasad suggested that the dual degree programs should be consistent with policies for UD programs. The UG and Grad Studies committees should look into how these programs are approved and how they can be made consistent with UD Senate policies.
 - c. Dell KACE Software that UD is installing on all UD Computers has already been installed on the Senate Computer. Don Lehman submitted a report to the Executive Committee last year. Karren will send that to the current Executive Committee. Carl Jacobs should address the senate in December. He was scheduled to speak to the senate last year, but had to cancel.
- IV. Adjournment: The meeting adjourned at 12:15PM
